

1. Easter Egg Hunt and Family Fun in the Park Saturday, March 27, 11 a.m. Downtown City Park

Join the Paso Robles Main Street Association at their annual Easter Egg Hunt. Bring a basket to collect your eggs and then have your photo taken with the Easter Bunny. For more information call 238-4103.

2. YMCA Spring Camp, Grades K - 6 March 29 to April 9, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Centennial Park

What could be more fun than field trips, gymnastics, art, cooking, crafts sports, science, friends and fun? Sign up for just a few days or for the entire camp! Camp includes a.m. and p.m. snacks. Cost is only $30 per day. To register call Shelly Dargatz at 237-0845.

3. Icky, Sticky, Slimy, Ooey, Goopy, Spring Break Science Days!

Paso Robles Children's Museum
623 13th Street, Paso Robles

Head over to the Paso Robles Children's Museum Learning Lab during Spring Break for some super slimy Science Fun! The Lab will be open twice daily at 11 am and 2 pm and children will be able to come down to their basement and play with slime, experiment with magnets, experience our Chocolate Goo, blow giant bubbles, and visit the Animal Corner. They will also have the Paint Wall in the Creation Station open daily from March 29th through April 9th. This Science Adventure is included with the cost of regular admission. For additional information call 238-7432 or go to www.pasokids.org.

4. Art Classes Paso Robles City Library April 5, 1 to 4 p.m. April 7, 1 to 4 p.m.

Join local artists from the Paso Robles Art Association as they teach various art techniques specially designed for the budding artist ages 8 - 12. Classes are limited and reservations 12 Super Spring Activities for the Kids!

By Judy Bedell

are required so sign up right away starting on Monday, March 29th.

5. Teen Gaming Night Paso Robles City Library March 31, 5 to 8 p.m.

Getting bored and looking for something fun and different to do? If you are between the ages of 13 and 18 stop by the Paso Robles Library and check out the Wii games on the big screen, hang out with friends and enjoy free refreshments. Drop in and check it out!

6. Family Game Night Paso Robles City Library April 9, 5 to 8 p.m.

Come enjoy the Wii on the big screen with family and friends. All adults must be accompanied by a child so mark your calendar and have a fun time playing board games and enjoying light refreshments at this family event. Reservations are not required.

7. Junior Tennis League Family and Youth Tennis Lessons Centennial Park Tennis Courts

Want a fun family activity this Spring Break? Join tennis Coach John Siemens for the fundamentals of tennis. He will even let you borrow a racket to get you started. These fast-paced, fun lessons will get you hooked. Parents can join in alongside their children for a healthy and fun workout. Call 434-0792 for information or register at the Centennial Park Office.

8. Cowboy and Cowgirl Camp Harris Stagelines Full day, partial day and individual programs

Want to learn about the Old West and how to take care of a horse? Join the crew at Harris Stagelines for their annual spring day camps. Kids will have a chance to get western in a safe and educational manner. Activities include horsemanship, draft horse care and driving, trick roping and showmanship. For information on specific dates and times call 237-1860.

9. Batter Up! California Gold 2127 Vanderlip Ct. Suite A Paso Robles

Softball and baseball players will want to take advantage of the new batting cage at California Gold. Whether you want to hear the crack of the bat or practice your fast-ball, the batting cage is the place to be. With variable speeds for all abilities, get some extra practice in between games. Call 238-9220 for more information on dates and times or to reserve a spot.

10. Work Ranch Horse Camp Work Ranch, Hog Canyon Road San Miguel

Wow, experience life on a real working ranch! Bring your own horse or use one of theirs. Learn horsemanship skills while making new friends, trail riding, gymkhana fun, working cattle and more. Separate camps for girls and boys. Call Kelly Work for further details, 467-3362.

11. Altered Books March 27, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Paso Robles City Library

Designed for teens and school age children accompanied by an adult, kick off Spring Break by turning a children's board book into a work of art. Bring your favorite board book and any embellishments you want to use and get ready to learn some new techniques for collage, painting and rubber stamping. Lots of fun and you will go home with a wonderful work of art, handmade by you! Contact Karen or Kris at 237-3870 for more information.

12. Visit the Pioneer Museum 2010 Riverside Ave.

Thurs. to Sat. 1 to 4 p.m.

Looking for a fun and educational family activity? Check out the Pioneer Museum. Admission is free and you will find some pretty cool exhibits on the Paso Robles area. Do you like old cars? Want to see what schools used to be like? Did you know Paso Robles had outlaws? Go to www.pasoroblesmuseum.org to see some of the exciting exhibits that await you.